SAINT LEO UNIVERSITY // WEEK OF OCTOBER 30, 2017

Recognition of The Week:

"As Vice President of Involvement for Panhellenic, I, along with members from IFC and UGC planned this week for our Greek members to learn about other Greek organizations while having fun at the same time. Planning this week was rewarding and I am happy to see that everyone had a great time! We are so blessed to be part of Greek Life on this campus. Without them, this week wouldn't have been possible. Thank you to everyone who came out this week!"

Greek Unity Week UGC Educational / Stepping 101

Saint Leo University's Greek Life community came together last week to celebrate unity amongst all organizations. To kick off the week, organizations came together on Monday to play Greek Feud to test their Greek knowledge. The following day, an amazing speaker, James Robilotta, spoke to Greeks' about authentic leadership. Wednesday, the Unified Greek Council presented a educational on a guide to Unified Greek Council and had an interactive activity to teach the basics of stepping. Thursday, Greeks' volunteered to set-up haunted Marmion. Friday, Greeks' bonded over pizza at the Greek pizza party. To finish off the week, the Greek community participated in making a difference at Saint Leo's annual event, Make A Difference Day.
